- Research That Makes a Difference: What Have We Learned from Collaborative Research in the CCCU?

Led by members of the CCCU's Christian Higher Education Research Council, this hands-on, interactive workshop will share results from collaborative research projects across the CCCU. Participants will learn the latest information about why our students choose a Christian college, why they persist to graduation, their satisfaction and levels of engagement during the college years, and the “value-added” elements of a CCCU education.
