Sponsorships are on a first-come, first-serve basis. The CCCU reserves the right to refuse any sponsorship contingent upon review by the CCCU staff. CCCU reserves the right to refuse sponsorship after the acceptance of the application and contract, if information should come to the attention of CCCU which, in the reasonable judgement of CCCU, demonstrates that the proposed sponsors would be inconsistent with the principles espoused by CCCU or unfavorable to the reputation of the CCCU.

The CCCU cannot confirm your sponsorship nor provide any sponsor benefits until full payment has been received and processed. Sponsors must submit a binding sponsorship application form, including acceptance of CCCU's terms and conditions. All sponsorships are non-refundable.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- All sponsor representatives must wear official Forum badge provided by CCCU at all times during the International Forum.
- Sponsors may display materials only in approved locations.
- Sponsor contact with event attendees must at all times be in keeping with the character of a professional meeting – informative and not intrusive.
- Spouses are considered representatives of sponsoring organizations.
- Additional terms and conditions may be specified by the host hotel or by CCCU.

DELIVERABLES

Upon receipt of payment, the following items are needed to complete your order:

- 25-word description of your organization (if applicable to your sponsorship level)

PAYMENT

A 100% payment must accompany the sponsorship form. We will not reserve any sponsorship without full payment. Payment may be made in the form of check, credit card, or money order.

FOR EXHIBITORS

Eligible Exhibits: The Council for Christian Colleges & Universities (hereafter referred to as "CCCU") reserves the right to refuse exhibit space to any applicant for any reason. In addition, CCCU reserves the right to refuse exhibit space to any exhibitor, if, after the acceptance of the application and contract, information should come to the attention of CCCU which, in the reasonable judgement of CCCU, demonstrates that the proposed exhibit would be inconsistent with the principles espoused by CCCU or unfavorable to the reputation of the CCCU. In the event that CCCU should exercise this right, any deposit and exhibit fees paid to CCCU shall be refunded, except that if the denial of exhibit space shall be for the failure or refusal of the Exhibitor to comply with the terms set forth elsewhere in the contract, the denial of exhibit space shall be treated as a cancellation by the Exhibitor. The exhibitor may not display signs that are not professionally prepared or in the opinion of CCCU detract from the appearance of the Forum. Smoking and alcoholic beverages are not permitted on the exhibit floor.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- All exhibitor representatives must wear official Forum badge provided by CCCU at all times during the International Forum.
- Exhibitor contact with event attendees must at all times be in keeping with the character of a professional meeting – informative and not intrusive.
- Spouses are considered representatives of exhibiting organizations.
- Additional terms and conditions may be specified by the host hotel or by CCCU.

Limitation of Liability: The exhibitor agrees to make no claim for any reason whatsoever against CCCU, its employees, the hotel, or the city and/or state wherein Forum is held for loss, theft, damage, destruction of goods, nor for any injury to him/herself or employees while the Forum is in progress, being set up or being taken down. Exhibitor agrees to indemnify and hold harmless CCCU and its employees against any and all claims of any person arising out of acts, omissions, or negligence of exhibitor, its agents or its employees. Further, neither CCCU, its employees, officers, volunteer, nor directors shall be liable for failure of the scheduled exhibition to be held due to fire, water damage, public emergency, strikes, other labor disputes, boycotts, cancellation of facility contracts, or acts of God beyond the power or control of CCCU to prevent. Each exhibitor acknowledges that it is the sole responsibility of each exhibitor to obtain the necessary insurance.

Assignment of Space: Exhibit space will be assigned in the order in which applications and payments are received. Exhibit space will not be assigned until full payment is received. CCCU reserves the right to alter the official floorplan, and/or reassign any exhibitor's space as deemed necessary.

Cancellation or Withdrawal: No refund will be made if the exhibitor cancels the contracted space on or after September 30, 2017, or if the exhibitor fails to occupy it. If written notification is received by CCCU before September 30, 2017, a 25% cancellation fee will be deducted from the refund amount.

Being a sponsor at a recent CCCU event for CFOs proved to be one of the best investments that we could have made. Unlike many other events that we have sponsored, the participants (and CCCU staff) consistently went out of their way to engage us. We plan to be sponsors again and again...."

Ray Tyler,

President, Cornerstone Management

Sponsor & Exhibitor Regulations & Terms

Payment: 100% payment must accompany the exhibit reservation form. We will not reserve any space without full payment. Failure to pay the entire booth rental entitles CCCU to reject the exhibit reservation form. No exhibitor or his/her display materials will be allowed in to the exhibit hall until he/she has made full payment to CCCU. Payment may be made in the form of check, credit card, or money order.

Prize Drawings & Giveaways: Exhibitors planning to hold drawings or raffles must submit, in writing, to CCCU, a complete description of the items to be raffled, the methods by which winners will be selected, and the manner in which the winners will be announced. Such drawings will not be permitted if they conflict in any way with the Forum, exhibit program, or local laws.

Limitation on Promotion and Demonstrations: During the Forum and exhibition, all demonstrations, promotional activities, and distribution of materials must be confined within the limits of the exhibit booth(s) in the exhibit hall. The playing of loud music, videos, films or the like, or any other loud or distracting activity that could be objectionable to neighboring exhibitors is prohibited. Exhibitor warrants that all copyrighted material to be performed or played has been duly authorized or licensed by the copyright owners or their representatives and agrees to indemnify and hold CCCU harmless from any and all claims and expenses, including legal fees, which might arise from questions of use of any such material described above.

Visitors: The CCCU Forum is not open to the public. CCCU shall have sole control over all admissions. All persons entering the exhibit area will be admitted according to the rules and regulations of the Forum and exhibition as issued or amended by authorized representatives of CCCU.

Decorator Rules and Regulations: Exhibitor agrees to conform to all rules and regulations of the Forum's official decorator as detailed in the official service kit provided by that company. CCCU is not responsible for decorator and/or hotel personnel, nor can CCCU guarantee that the services and/or utilities promised by the decorator and/or hotel shall be available during exhibition.

Security: While CCCU seeks to arrange security personnel to maintain a watch before and after the exhibition, neither CCCU nor the security company personnel shall be liable for any damage or theft to the exhibitor's display or property. The security that CCCU is providing is for the Forum and its guests and not for the protection of exhibitor, exhibitor property, or exhibitor's workers. The exhibitor should not rely on CCCU-provided security for any reason.

“

We've been annual sponsors of the CCCU Presidents and CFO Conferences. And we'll continue to be. The event planning staff at CCCU and college and university participants are openly appreciative of each sponsor's commitment. And so each one of these peer group meetings is a venue where institutional leaders and sponsors have plenty of relevant face time. The quality of the speakers is exceptionally high and CCCU's program management is top-notch. We've measured the time and money we invest with CCCU as uniquely well spent!”
