CCCU PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT & RESEARCH

The CCCU coordinates regular institutional research to support the day-to-day management of its member schools through the Comprehensive Assessment Program and conducts occasional topical research to explore aspects of the most pressing issues facing Christian higher education. Sponsorships of the CCCU research programs involve either financial support of the Comprehensive Assessment Program, enabling less highly-resourced member schools to participate in regular institutional research, or commissioning a large-scale research project on a topic vital to the future of the Christian college movement.

Throughout the year, there are numerous opportunities for sponsors and exhibitors to reach members of the CCCU community. From webinars to large-scale conferences to targeted gatherings of individuals around common interests, we would be happy to discuss which option would be the best fit for you.

CONTACT US

For additional information and questions regarding sponsoring a CCCU event, please contact Jeri Mahurin, Sponsorship Coordinator at JMahurin@cccu.org or sponsorships@cccu.org. For advertising opportunities, please contact advertising@cccu.org.

Sponsorships are on a first-come, first-serve basis. The CCCU reserves the right to refuse any sponsorship contingent upon review by the CCCU staff. CCCU reserves the right to refuse sponsorship after the acceptance of the application and contract, if information should come to the attention of CCCU which, in the reasonable judgement of CCCU, demonstrates that the proposed sponsors would be inconsistent with the principles espoused by CCCU or unfavorable to the reputation of the CCCU.

The CCCU cannot confirm your sponsorship nor provide any sponsor benefits until full payment has been received and processed. Sponsors must submit a binding sponsorship application form, including acceptance of the CCCU's terms and conditions. All sponsorships are non-refundable.

Cancellation or Withdrawal: All sponsorships are non-refundable. If, after payment, you determine you can no longer sponsor the event, the funds collected can be used towards a sponsorship at a future event.

Failure to pay in full for the sponsorship within 60 days prior to event entitles the CCCU to cancel the sponsorship.

Tabletop Display Regulations

The CCCU reserves the right to refuse exhibit space to any applicant for any reason. The exhibitor may not display signs that are not professionally prepared or in the opinion of CCCU detract from the appearance of the conference.

Limitation of Liability: The sponsor agrees to make no claim for any reason whatsoever against CCCU, its employees, the hotel, or the city and/or state wherein Event is held for loss, theft, damage, destruction of goods, nor for any injury to him/herself or employees while the conference is in progress, being set up or being taken down. Further, neither CCCU, its employees, officers, volunteer, nor directors shall be liable for failure of the scheduled conference to be held due to fire, water damage, public emergency, strikes, other labor disputes, boycotts, cancellation of facility contracts, or acts of God beyond the power or control of CCCU to prevent.

Assignment of Space: Tabletop display space will be assigned in the order in which applications and payments are received. Tabletop display space will not be assigned until full payment is received. The CCCU reserves the right to alter the official floorplan, and/or reassign any sponsor's space as deemed necessary.
