

THE COUNCIL FOR
CHRISTIAN COLLEGES
& UNIVERSITIES

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

EXPERIENCE MISSION- DRIVEN COMMUNITY & PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Conferences, training, and career-building resources for administrative staff and faculty, such as:

- International Forum
- Presidents Conference
- Christian Higher Ed Summit
- Leadership Development Institutes
- Peer Group and Topic-Specific Webinars

Online Networking Groups

- Facilitate connections with like-minded peers facing similar challenges, offering support, resources, and innovative solutions.

Career Center

- Promote thousands of career openings to 100K+ website visitors each year with discounted job posting prices for member institutions.

Faculty Sabbatical Opportunity

- In partnership with the Lanier Theological Library. Options to stay in Houston, TX and Oxford, England.

ACCESS STRATEGIC FINANCIAL SOLUTIONS FOR YOUR INSTITUTION

Sovereign Insurance Consortium

- CCCU institutions who joined the consortium in 2019 saved between $94,000 and $152,000 annually compared to their 2018 costs.

Online Education Partnership with CampusEDU

- Through the CCCU, CampusEDU works directly with campuses to create state-of-the-art online courses.

Online Course Sharing Network Through Acadeum

- A network of 100+ faith-based institutions offering more than 5,000 online courses, resulting in more than $26M in recovered revenue for institutions.

Tuition Waiver Exchange Program (TWEPP)

- Faculty members, staff and administrators can send their dependents to participating institutions, receiving a waiver of the institution's usual tuitions.

BENEFIT FROM ADVOCACY TO PROTECT THE RIGHTS OF CHRISTIAN INSTITUTIONS

The CCCU serves as the leading voice protecting and advancing the rights of Christian colleges and universities in public policy, legal matters and cultural conversations.

Core advocacy areas include:

- Religious freedom and institutional autonomy
- Financial aid
- Tax policy

RECEIVE TIMELY RESOURCES RELEVANT TO CHRISTIAN HIGHER EDUCATION

Monthly CCCU Newsletters

- “The Leading Voice” (providing updates from the CCCU president for presidents)
- “From Capitol Hill” (providing advocacy updates from the government relations team)
- “eAdvance” (providing updates and resources for a broad Christian higher education audience)
- “Academic Newsletter” (providing updates on research, grant and professional development opportunities to provosts, deans, faculty, and library leaders)

Award-Winning ADVANCE Magazine

OBTAIN DATA-DRIVEN INSIGHTS TO SHAPE DECISION-MAKING

Annual Salary and Compensation Survey

Annual Collaborative Assessment Project (CAP)

Enrollment and Marketing Research Surveys

Free Access to the Christian Higher Education Journal

Trends in Affordability & Financial Health Study (facilitated by Bethel University, MN)

UTILIZE THE CENTER FOR FAITH AND LEARNING

The CCCU’s Center for Faith & Learning empowers educators and students to reflect on and develop the connections of their faith with their learning, vocation, and life-long journey of discipleship.

Resources available include:

- Faith-Learning Institute for faculty development
- Topical Webinars
- In-Person and Virtual Conferences and Events
- Testimonials from leaders who are implementing faith integration across their institutions

Learn more by visiting cccu.org. For questions or help getting connected with any of these services, email Sharon Ndathi-Gregg, Development and Administrative Assistant, at sndathi-gregg@cccu.org.